
Republicans Doing the People's Business

Senate Republicans Have an Agenda and are Making Progress:

Judges Up-or-Down Votes
Class Action Reform
Job Creation
Bankruptcy Reform
Budget
Supplemental

Still More to Do - Need Democrats to Help Move the Agenda Forward:

Fair, Up-or-Down Votes for John Bolton and Judicial Nominees

- Nominees reaching the Senate floor deserve a fair, up-or-down vote.
- Republicans want a return to civility in the confirmation process based on respect for the institution and the nominees.
- Republicans urge Democrats to stop playing politics with nominations.

Save and Strengthen Social Security

- Republicans are committed to passing Social Security reform this year.
 - Republicans think the problem facing Social Security is too important for partisan politics.
 - Republicans call on Democrats to come to the table on reform.
-

Republicans Doing the People's Business

Senate Republicans Have an Agenda and are Making Progress:

Judges Up-or-Down Votes
Class Action Reform
Job Creation
Bankruptcy Reform
Budget
Supplemental

Still More to Do - Need Democrats to Help Move the Agenda Forward:

Fair, Up-or-Down Votes for John Bolton and Judicial Nominees

- Nominees reaching the Senate floor deserve a fair, up-or-down vote.
- Republicans want a return to civility in the confirmation process based on respect for the institution and the nominees.
- Republicans urge Democrats to stop playing politics with nominations.

Save and Strengthen Social Security

- Republicans are committed to passing Social Security reform this year.
 - Republicans think the problem facing Social Security is too important for partisan politics.
 - Republicans call on Democrats to come to the table on reform.
-

Republicans Doing the People's Business

Senate Republicans Have an Agenda and are Making Progress:

Judges Up-or-Down Votes
Class Action Reform
Job Creation
Bankruptcy Reform
Budget
Supplemental

Still More to Do - Need Democrats to Help Move the Agenda Forward:

Fair, Up-or-Down Votes for John Bolton and Judicial Nominees

- Nominees reaching the Senate floor deserve a fair, up-or-down vote.
- Republicans want a return to civility in the confirmation process based on respect for the institution and the nominees.
- Republicans urge Democrats to stop playing politics with nominations.

Save and Strengthen Social Security

- Republicans are committed to passing Social Security reform this year.
 - Republicans think the problem facing Social Security is too important for partisan politics.
 - Republicans call on Democrats to come to the table on reform.
-

Securing Our Nation's Economy

Republican Pro-Job Policies are Working

- 24 straight months of job gains
- Over 3.5 million jobs created since May 2003
- 78,000 jobs created in May 2005

Republicans are Committed to Passing a Comprehensive Energy Bill that:

- Employs innovative technologies to improve conservation and efficiency.
- Increases domestic energy production in environmentally responsible ways.
- Diversifies the nation's energy supply.
- Modernizes the domestic energy infrastructure.

Republicans are Focused on Ending Abusive Lawsuits Now by:

- Ensuring fair compensation for those genuinely injured by asbestos exposure.
- Enforcing personal responsibility by ending junk lawsuits against the fast food industry.
- Imposing stiffer penalties for lawyers who file frivolous lawsuits.

Securing Our Nation's Economy

Republican Pro-Job Policies are Working

- 24 straight months of job gains
- Over 3.5 million jobs created since May 2003
- 78,000 jobs created in May 2005

Republicans are Committed to Passing a Comprehensive Energy Bill that:

- Employs innovative technologies to improve conservation and efficiency.
- Increases domestic energy production in environmentally responsible ways.
- Diversifies the nation's energy supply.
- Modernizes the domestic energy infrastructure.

Republicans are Focused on Ending Abusive Lawsuits Now by:

- Ensuring fair compensation for those genuinely injured by asbestos exposure.
- Enforcing personal responsibility by ending junk lawsuits against the fast food industry.
- Imposing stiffer penalties for lawyers who file frivolous lawsuits.

Securing Our Nation's Economy

Republican Pro-Job Policies are Working

- 24 straight months of job gains
- Over 3.5 million jobs created since May 2003
- 78,000 jobs created in May 2005

Republicans are Committed to Passing a Comprehensive Energy Bill that:

- Employs innovative technologies to improve conservation and efficiency.
- Increases domestic energy production in environmentally responsible ways.
- Diversifies the nation's energy supply.
- Modernizes the domestic energy infrastructure.

Republicans are Focused on Ending Abusive Lawsuits Now by:

- Ensuring fair compensation for those genuinely injured by asbestos exposure.
- Enforcing personal responsibility by ending junk lawsuits against the fast food industry.
- Imposing stiffer penalties for lawyers who file frivolous lawsuits.

