

"If, after 150 days languishing in a committee there is no report on an individual, the name should come to the floor. If after 150 days languishing on the Executive Calendar that name has not been called for a vote, it should be. Vote the person up or down."

*Senator Richard Durbin
September 28, 1998*