

"...the president of the Senate...and the membership of the Senate...have both clearly, unequivocally, and unmistakably accepted and upheld the proposition that the U.S. Senate may...establish its rules by majority vote, uninhibited by rules adopted by previous Congresses."

- Senator Walter Mondale
March 7, 1975